

Project Manager - Partnerships

About Contemporary Arts Museum Houston (CAMH)

Contemporary Arts Museum Houston (CAMH) presents extraordinary, thought-provoking arts programming and exhibitions to educate and inspire audiences nationally and internationally.

Established in 1948, CAMH is one of the oldest non-collecting contemporary art museums in the country and is internationally known for presenting pivotal and landmark work by artists recognized as the most important of the 20th and 21st centuries. CAMH's mandate is to be present, to connect artists and audiences through the urgent issues of our time, and to adventurously promote the catalytic possibilities of contemporary art. CAMH's programming, both in and beyond the Museum, is presented free to the public, and advocates for artists' essential role in society.

About Houston Freedmen's Town Conservancy (HFTC)

Established in 2016 as a Mayoral Task Force, Houston Freedmen's Town Conservancy (HFTC) was formally designated as a 501(c)(3) organization in 2018. The Houston Freedmen's Town Conservancy (HFTC) is charged with "Telling the Story of Freedom" in the historic Freedmen's Town, Houston's oldest African American neighborhood, located in the Fourth Ward district.

HFTC's primary focus is to protect and preserve the history of Freedmen's Town for the benefit of future generations. We support community engagement, re-education, and heritage-based tourism and events.

Description

The Project Manager - Partnerships is a full-time, exempt position in CAMH's Administration - Partnership Department in collaboration with Houston Freedmen's Town Conservancy. This position is the result of a unique collaboration between the City of Houston, Houston Freedmen's Town Conservancy (HFTC), and Contemporary Arts Museum Houston (CAMH) that will position artists in service of the effort to achieve full recognition for Freedmen's Town. The project will integrate infrastructure and resilience planning, archaeological preservation of the brick pavers, and embed artists as storytellers and catalysts that enhance the experience of Freedmen's Town. Described as "the crown jewel of the Emancipation Trail," the Freedmen's Town Heritage District is a primary Black cultural landmark that includes seven sites recognized by the UNESCO Routes of Enslaved Peoples project. On behalf of the partnership, the project will protect, preserve, and restore the intact Freedmen's Town Heritage District; program a visitor's center to educate and inspire audiences, and integrate public art within the neighborhood. Foremost in this effort, is the preservation of brick streets, which hold deep historical and spiritual significance.

This Project Manager - Partnerships role is a critical front-facing member of CAMH's team working with a large and complex project that brings together a cross-disciplinary team of artists, curators, public programming, and engagement specialists, alongside engineers, designers, and preservationists. The project includes place-based artist activations, programming and community engagement, artist/historian in-residence programs, advisory council, feasibility study, artist retreat, and exhibitions.

Employment Opportunity

Phase 1 involves:

- 1) Feasibility study and concept design to ensure the viability of above-grade preservation of archaeological history and brick pavers throughout Freedmen's Town.
- 2) Programming and Engagement to learn from the community, build capacity, and raise civic awareness.
- 3) World-class temporary artistic activations involving local and national artists to ignite public imagination.
