

Contemporary Arts Museum Houston

Employment Opportunity | Communications Coordinator

About the Museum

Contemporary Arts Museum Houston (CAMH) presents extraordinary, thought-provoking arts programming and exhibitions to educate and inspire audiences nationally and internationally.

Established in 1948, CAMH is one of the oldest non-collecting contemporary art museums in the country, and is internationally known for presenting pivotal and landmark work by artists recognized as the most important of the 20th and 21st centuries. CAMH's mandate is to be present, to connect artists and audiences through the urgent issues of our time, and to adventurously promote the catalytic possibilities of contemporary art. CAMH's programming, both in and beyond the Museum, is presented free to the public, and advocates for artists' essential role in society.

Description

The Communications Coordinator is a full-time, exempt position at Contemporary Arts Museum Houston in the Communications and Marketing department. The position works closely with the Director of Communications and Marketing to provide local, regional, national, and international audiences with accurate and compelling information about Museum exhibitions, activities, and general news. The Communications Coordinator is instrumental in crafting and maintaining CAMH's social media presence, email marketing initiatives, website updates, and maintaining department calendars and databases. The successful candidate will be prepared to initiate and complete innovative concepts across all channels of communication.

CAMH cultivates an active and engaged audience through social media and online. The successful candidate will bring a savvy, spirited, rigorous, and humorous approach to engagement with local and international audiences that is rooted in trust in artists and passion for their impact on society.

This full-time role requires living in or near Houston, Texas. Typical hours for this role are 9AM-5PM, Monday-Friday, although additional hours on nights and weekends will occasionally be required in support of Museum events and department duties.
