

The artist Nari Ward was born in St. Andrew, Jamaica and moved to New York, New York as a child.

Do you know someone who has moved here from another place? Write a short story imagining you are in a place where everything is new.

ART GUIDE

Look at the artwork on display in the exhibition Nari Ward: We the People. Make a list of all the objects that you recognize.

Imagine the journey that object has gone through—from being made, bought, owned, used, discarded, and then found—to have a new life in a museum. Choose an object and write the story of how it ended up at CAMH. Who owned it? Why did they get rid of it? How did Nari Ward find it?
