

Inspired by the work of conceptual artist Ekene Ijeoma and his work, Accounting, create a text based collage to inspire dialogue on a present-day challenge you would like to discuss and bring awareness to.

Materials

- Drawing utensils (e.g., pen, pencil, crayon, marker)
- Text for collaging (e.g., magazines, books, newspapers)
- Paper for background (e.g., construction paper, card stock, copy paper, etc.)
- Adhesive (e.g., craft glue, tape, glue sticks)
- Scissors

Instructions

1. PREPARE YOUR MATERIALS

As artists and activists, people use art to fight for change. Ekene Ijeoma's practice illuminating issues of social justice through works of art addresses the undercounting of marginalized communities in the United States census. Gather your materials and think about what changes you would like to see in your community. Next, find a place at home where you can safely lay out your materials and comfortably work on your artwork.

Text Collage

Inspired by the work of conceptual artist Ekene Ijeoma and his work, A

Counting, create a text based collage to inspire dialogue on a present-day challenge you would like to discuss and bring awareness to.

2. Select Words and Letters

Think about a topic or issue that you care about. What word or words come to mind that relate to your topic and best express something important you want to share? Once you have picked your word(s), look through your materials to choose, then tear or cut out the words and letters you want to use. Be sure to pick letters and words that vary in size and color to create variation throughout your composition.

3. Arrange Words

Will your text collage have a focal point? In what ways will your artwork convey your important message and idea? Select a layout, then arrange your words and letters onto your background. Notice the repetition or patterns you are creating with your text. Once you feel that your layout communicates the message you want, glue or tape down your collage to your background.

4. Personalize

Using your drawing materials, add color, additional text, or patterns to your collage.
